

Workshop

Trading Peasant Land

Patterns and Strategies of Land Transactions in Late Medieval Central Europe and Northern Italy

Pavia, 22 – 23 November 2018

There were numerous reasons for changes of possession and various institutions defined the form those transactions took in late medieval times. The Workshop addresses the circulation of landed property in different regions of Central Europe and Northern Italy. The questions centre on structures, acting parties and their priorities.

Programme

Location

Almo Collegio Borromeo
Piazza Borromeo 8
27100 Pavia

Thursday

22 November 2018

14:30–15:00

Welcome Address and Introduction

Thomas Frank (Pavia)

15:00–18:45

Panel 1 — chaired by Ricardo Rao (Bergamo)

15:00–16:00

The influence of partible inheritance on land transactions among siblings. Lambach mid-15th century

Johannes Kaska (Vienna)

16:00–17:00

The 'land-family bond' in wine growing villages near Vienna, 1450–1550

Samuel Nussbaum (Vienna)

17:00–17:45

Coffee Break

17:45–18:45

Vienna's wine.

Citizens and their vineyard investments around 1400 AD

Thomas Ertl (Berlin)

20:00

Dinner

Friday

23 November 2018

09:00–12:30

Panel 2 — chaired by Mario Rizzo (Pavia)

09:00–10:00

The transfer of peasant land in the Cheb region around 1450 (Czech Republic)
Tomás Klír (Prague)

10:00–11:00

A land market among locals – Land transactions in the Aflenz estate (Upper Styria), 1494–1550
Birgit Heinzle (St. Gallen)

11:00–11:30

Coffee Break

11:30–12:30

Hidden reasons or apparent purchase? Land swap contracts in early modern southern Tyrol
Janine Maegraith (Vienna)

12:30–14:00

Lunch

14:00–16:30

Panel 3 — chaired by Amar Salem Baadj (Trier)

14:00–15:00

The lease market in the region of Treviso: the tenants of the Hospital Santa Maria dei Battuti, 15th–16th century
Thomas Frank (Pavia)

15:00–16:00

Capitalism and peasants economy. Agrarian contracts, socio-economic stratification and households organisation in the early modern Lombardy
Matteo Di Tullio (Pavia)

16:00–16:30

Coffee Break

16:30–17:00

Final Discussion

Thomas Ertl (Berlin) and Emmanuel Huertas (Toulouse)

Organisation

Thomas Ertl (Berlin)
Thomas Frank (Pavia)
Samuel Nussbaum (Vienna)

Funding/Support

FWF Der Wissenschaftsfonds.

1550 PAVIA
ALMO COLLEGIO
BORROMEO

INSTITUT FÜR
WIRTSCHAFTS- UND
WISO ZIALGESCHICHTE

Busy Tenants
busytenants.univie.ac.at

Illustration

Adaptation of Hans Holbein the Younger's
Dance Macabre, the Husbandman, 1520ies